Idaho PTV seeks Student Advisory Committee Members for Jobs Explained.

Students interested in taking a leadership role in helping peers connect with job opportunities in key industry sectors can now apply to serve on IdahoPTV's Youth Advisory Committee for Jobs Explained. Idaho PTV is one of ten stations across the US working with local students and Jobs Explained to share information about careers, pay, education and training in employment sectors. As a Jobs Explained participants, Idaho PTV will create easily accessible videos about in-demand and civic minded careers, directly connecting youth to education, training and job opportunities in their own communities and beyond. To apply students must be 15-20, must be active on social media and must be interested in job training in a key sector.

Learn more about Jobs Explained or apply for a place on the panel at Apply for Panel. Please direct questions to Jessica Solberg at Jessica.solberg@idahoptv.org.

Volunteers for Book Fair – PTO is looking for volunteers to help with the Book Fair April 29 – May 3rd. If you are interested, please contact Crys Barber at cbarber@sd282.org.

We've also had some students recognized for their efforts (athletically & academically) by different organizations. The North Idaho Sports Hall of Fame recognized Brinley Lowe and Kendra Meyer for their Softball abilities, and the Genesee Softball team and Coach Malcom for their state championship in 2023. Kendra Meyer was also named the North Idaho Softball Athlete of the Year for 2023! Kole Scharnhorst and Mia Scharnhorst were also nominees for the Duane Hagadone Character Award too. Congratulations to all nominees and award winners!

Teak Wareham was one of 2 people who received the NIAAA state scholarship. Teak was presented the award at the IAAA (ID Assoc of Athletic Administrators) Conference this past week. Teak's application was chosen to be moved on to the national level too, so he is one of 16 students in the country who has a shot at this other award. Congratulations Teak and good luck!

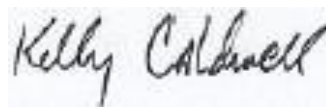

Have a great weekend. GO BULLDOGS!
